1920年代，簡吉與一群青年投身農民運動，穿梭在臺灣各地農村，在田野、鐵路與糖廠之中，協助佃農爭取生計與尊嚴。1925年，簡吉協助高雄農民成立「鳳山農民組合」，掀起臺灣農村社運浪潮。本展回顧簡吉與家人們的故事，呈現其為鄉土奔走的身影，為他們找回應得的敬意。

During the 1920s, Chien Gi (1903–1951) and a cohort of young activists devoted themselves to the peasant movement, helping tenant farmers fight for their livelihood and dignity. Their footsteps stretched across Taiwan's rural landscape—through the fields, along the railways, and into the sugar factories. In 1925, Chien Gi assisted in the establishment of the "Fongshan Peasants Union," which ignite a powerful wave of rural social reform.

By revisiting the stories of Chien Gi and his family, this exhibition honors his lifelong commitment to the land and restores the honor and respect they truly deserve.
